From the Associate Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Reading the Pentateuch

The first reading of today's Mass speaks of "the whole law" given to Israel through Moses at Mount Sinai. Throughout the Scriptures, when the 'law' is mentioned it is usually the Old Testament Law of Moses, found in the first five books of the Bible. These books are also called the torah (Hebrew for 'law') or the Pentateuch (Greek for 'five books'). Very often, the Church's relationship with the Law is confused, and as Catholics we are accused of hypocrisy for following some parts but not others. Are we reading the Old Testament incorrectly?

Fortunately for us, tradition provides the answer. Judaism itself distinguishes among mishpatim, edot and hukkim in the Mosaic Law. Without becoming overly technical, this means that both Jews and Christians have been distinguishing, for centuries, among the Divine Will, the moral commandments, the cultic rituals, the civil ordinances, and the social code of the Mosaic Law.

As Catholics we are baptized into the New Covenant given through Christ. As both St. Paul and the evangelists make clear, we are not bound to the Mosaic Law. However, we worship the same God, and share the same human nature, so we are still bound to live in accord with those realities. Therefore, we are not bound to the cultic, civil, or social commandments of the Old Law. This would include keeping kosher, or stoning to death for particular offenses. On the other hand, we are bound to the Divine and moral law. This would include worshiping the One True God, and living in harmony with God's plan for humanity.

Youth Ministry at St. Rosalie's

I am happy to announce that St. Rosalie's has begun the process of implementing a parish youth group for our teens. We will be subscribing to Life Teen, which assists parishes in implementing and sustaining youth ministry. I would ask that you please join me in praying for our young people, and for the successful implementation of the ministry. I would also ask the adults of our parish above 21 years of age to discern if you would be willing to assist as a member of the ministry. More information on this is forthcoming.

The Feast of St. Rosalie

Next Saturday, September 8, we will be celebrating the feast of St. Rosalie at the 5 p.m. Mass. Following the Mass and procession, we will have a barbeque and family activities in the Community Center. Please join us in celebrating our patronal feast!

*Ad Iesum per Mariam,
Father John*

Picture Yourself

We usually put some pictures of Parish activities in this space, but this week we would like to work with your imagination. The upcoming St. Rosalie's Feast Day, which we will celebrate next Saturday, September 8, will need some extra helpers. Picture yourself being one of those helpers. There are opportunities to help with the barbeque and serving dessert as well as providing a guiding hand to the procession.

Call Linda at 631-728-9461 to sign up. Please find some time to help. Thank you!

MEMORIALS

The Sanctuary Candle this week is donated in memory of

JAMES MOORE

Requested by Rosemary and Peter Marchewka

St. Rosalie's is happy to make available another way to remember your loved one. Memorialize the following each week with the name of the loved one printed in the bulletin:

Weekly Sanctuary Candle $25

Weekly Altar Bread and Wine $50

Weekly Altar Candles $50

See Linda at the Parish Center to arrange this.

Autumn Mass Schedule

Beginning next Sunday, September 9, we will turn to our Autumn Mass schedule. At St. Rosalie's in Hampton Bays: Saturday at 5 p.m.; Sunday 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.; Spanish Mass Sundays at 4 p.m. Weekday Masses will be at 8 a.m. and 12 noon, Monday-Friday. At St. Rosalie's in East Quogue beginning September 9, only one Sunday Mass will be at 9 a.m. This schedule will continue through the end of the year.

Second Collection Next Week

The Catholic University of America is unique among universities in the United States – even among Catholic universities. Established by Pope Leo XIII and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. In addition to alumni who hail from this diocese, Catholic University claims one third of the U.S. bishops and 12,000 priests and religious as alumni. In Washington, D.C., the University provides an education based in the Catholic intellectual tradition to almost 7,000 students through its 12 schools.

St. Rosalie's Feast Day

We will celebrate the religious event of St. Rosalie's Feast on Saturday, September 8 although her feast day actually falls on September 4. We will follow our custom on September 8 with a Mass at 5 p.m. and a procession with all ministries and parishioners represented.

After the procession we will have a blessing and placement of the statue of Saint Rosalie outside followed by a parish barbecue in the Community Center.

Catholic Daughters of America

We are planning a "car-pool trip" to the Shrine in Manorville for Tuesday, September 11 at 10:30 a.m. Please call Maria 631-461-3003 or Rae 631-728-6830 for details.

Catholic Daughters of the Americas is having an Attic Treasures Sale on Saturday, October 13th and Sunday, October 14. We need stuff: household treasures, collectibles, jewelry, holiday items etc. Please call Rae 631-235-2404 or 631-728-6830 for drop off or pickup.

Prayers for Armed Forces Servicemen and Women

If you have a friend or relative on the Armed Forces Prayer list on page 5 of this Bulletin, would you be so kind as to call the Parish Center 631-728-9461, to give us a current address of your loved one who is serving. We would like to send Christmas cards to them.

Attention Parishioners

We are asking everyone to please use the designated parking stalls. Emergency vehicles must have full access to the parking lot in the case of an emergency. Parking by the islands causes a problem for the emergency vehicles.

Office Closed

The Parish Center will be closed on Monday, September 3, in recognition of Labor Day. The Priests and staff of St. Rosalie's wish all a safe and enjoyable holiday.

Statement from The Diocese of Rockville Centre

You may be aware from media coverage this past week of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report on sexual abuse of minors by Catholic priests that Bishop Barres was referenced in the report stemming from his time as the Bishop of Allentown. The report accuses Bishop Barres of not dealing decisively with accusations against priests, one priest in particular. To be absolutely clear, what the report presents regarding Bishop Barres is inaccurate and misleading on key facts. During his time as the Bishop of Allentown, Bishop Barres was, in fact, as vigilant as he is now about identifying and removing abusive priests and protecting God's children. We urge everyone to take home and read the full statement regarding the inaccuracies in the report. The statement is also available on the diocesan website at www.drvc.org.

The abuse of any human being – particularly of children – is a terrible sin and a crime. It should not happen anywhere and it most particularly should not happen in the Catholic Church. The fact that it did is disgraceful and the Bishop is committed to removing any abusers and keeping out future ones. And we continue to pray and work toward healing for survivors of abuse. The Pennsylvania report looks back at 70 years. It is important to note the progress that has been made since 2002. It is also important to be accurate when reporting on or speaking about the record of Church leaders who have confronted these terrible issues. Clearly, the Church's vigilance in this area can never cease, and, in fact must always be expanded.

Our Lady of the Hamptons School

As the opening bell for the 2018-19 school year approaches, the administration and faculty of Our Lady of the Hamptons Regional Catholic School send along grateful prayers for the support and encouragement that is received each year from our local parishes. This year signals the thirty-sixth year since the successful regionalization of Our Lady of Poland, Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary and St. Rosalie's parishes. Since that time, additional parishes have students attending from Most Holy Trinity (East Hampton), Queen of the Most Holy Rosary (Bridgehampton), St. Therese of Lisieux (Montauk), St. Andrew's (Sag Harbor) and Our Lady of the Isle (Shelter Island).

Now, more than ever, there is need for a strong Catholic elementary education on the East End! OLH stands as the only Catholic elementary school on the South Shore of Eastern Long Island and serves as a beacon of hope for our church! Extensive programs in music, art, dance, athletics and technology complement outstanding academics and strong Catholic values and traditions.

There are a few spaces available for students in kindergarten, grades 1 and 5. Interested families are invited to call to schedule an appointment to discuss placement. Please call the office at 631-283-9140.

Placement in the elite OLH Prep program for grades 6, 7 and 8 is at a premium with waiting list status in effect. This program features Regents level courses in Math and Science, as well as an aggressive ELA curriculum, integrated Fine Arts and competitive sports programs in volleyball, basketball, baseball, cross-country and softball. Personal interviews are required.

OLH Pre-school for three and four-year-old children is offered at the campus of St. Rosalie's Church in Hampton Bays. Registration for the 2018-19 school year is open for the two-day program for three-year-olds and waiting list status now in the four-year-old program. The OLH Pre-school offers bi-lingual teachers, enrichment in dance, as well as pre-reading and readiness for kindergarten. Informational packets are available. Call 631-283-9140 to set up a personal appointment and tour. More information is available on the website www.olh.org.

Day of Prayer for Men and Women "Wrestling with God"

Saturday, September 15
9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

St. Joseph Renewal Center at Montfort Retreat Center

26 South Saxon Ave.
Bay Shore, NY 11706
631-647-8683

How would you describe the title in your own words? In the movie the "War Room," Clara, the elder woman is speaking with Elizabeth, the young woman and tells her, "You got to plead with God so that He can do what only He can do and then you got to get out of the way and let God do it." Clara gives Elizabeth her prayer journal to read. The scripture references helped Clara in her time of struggle, or wrestling with God. For example: "Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and incomprehensible things you do not know." JEREMIAH 33:3.

How prepared are you to wrestle with God? Have you ever given yourself permission to wrestle with God?

Presenter: Josephine Daspro, CSJ
Offering: $25.00 includes a light lunch

St. Vincent de Paul Society Reflection

The gospel today hits home closer than we may think. What traditions do we blindly cling to? Perhaps it is enough for us just to go to Mass on Sunday? Do we keep the letter of the law and miss entirely the spirit of the law. Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living: self-giving for the sake of others.

As you give your gift to the poor through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, in your heart you also will find the good news of God's love.

Stewardship Reflection

"Every worthwhile gift, every genuine benefit comes from above," says St. James in the second reading. But, he reminds us, true worship of God involves using those good gifts to benefit the less fortunate. Good stewardship is not optional; it is the hallmark of our faith! We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who demonstrate by their generosity that they understand God is the Source of all they are and have.

Seeds of Wisdom (Sow) Monthly Gatherings – A Journey for Spiritual Growth

Fourth Thursday of months September-April from 1:30-3 p.m. Early arrivals and refreshments 1 p.m. Come closer, to ponder the question of Jesus, "Who do you say that I am?" MATTHEW 16:16-17 and to discover gradually, who does Christ reveal that you are? Take a brief time each month to foster a new faith community and friendship, deepen self-reflection to focus on your personal relationship with Christ, scriptural themes, optional sharing and time for silence. Bring a journal to jot down new insights!
